This article presents the reports collected from various sources. Amanpuri Team of reports/articles covered in this update are: Use of money for bribes continues: Even though corruption has been on the decline, money to be spent on bribing is still there. Take the example of a player who is at a foreign stadium – he is told by some people that if he wants to play there, he needs to pay some money to play there. Some people, on being asked, seem to be the liaison between the player and the people who are providing the facility. They earn some money and deposit it with those who are running the game, which they play for, but in some cases, the facility which they are getting from is actually run by someone else. The only people to get benefited from the scheme are the officials who are running the game. The money which they have earned from this game is deposited with them, keeping all the players out of the scheme. There are some people who even get over, the officials by offering their help to get money out of players. In fact, the money which is paid out is to be used for themselves, as they are the ones who are running the game. Sources reveal that many of the players who are playing for clubs other than their home-town clubs are struggling to pay the amount of money which is being demanded by these people. The solution to this is not difficult. The concerned authorities must now act as they should have done earlier. Managing player with open mind: Some of the best clubs are running well in the domestic game. However, for them, the biggest problem is the lack of funds. Because of that, they have to hire some players from outside. If the player is not from the home town and he is hired, the managers and the officials should be aware that he 2d92ce491b
